Your home away from home has become mine. I absolutely love it. I could not have found a better place. All your recommendations of what to see, do, and places to eat were solid. I will be back, this is part of my new life.

—Renee from Milwaukee, WI says,

You have done a wonderful job with the casita, lots of special details. Thank you for making this beautiful, warm home available to people like me who need a sanctuary. This was a mind blowing vacation, something has shifted inside of me. I am leaving a different person.

—Deborah, Sag Harbor, NY

Your tips in your Welcome Letter were right on. That alone was worth the price. It made my vacation less of a touristy, commercial trip and more of a cultural experience. —Isabella, Italy

You really did help make my vacation carefree. The fact that you welcome people of all orientations and races eliminated many of my concerns about a holiday in a vacation rental. You added a personal dimension to the words 'gay-friendly' by welcoming me and my family.
